THE COTTON MARKET yesterday was ulet. There were no quotations from New York, and in their absence some of he buyers were indisposed to operate. New Orleans was tregular with large receipts; our own receipts were full. The demand in our market, under these circomstancer, was not animated, but holders were frequently stronger in their nakings than on the day before, yet there were a few instances to the contrary, and these 'e-sy spots' were eagerly sought out. The general aspect of the market presented no change from that of the preceding day, it closed quiet and steady. The official closing quotations of the Memphis cotton exchange were as follows: Yes erday. Day before.

Levee Paragraphs. The levee was all business yesterday. The Minneola is the next regular packet for Cincinnati. The Capitol City passed up yesterday morning for St. Louis. The Illinois left last evening fo Vicksburg with a good trip.

Old Jupiter Pluv. hovered around this locality all day yesterday.

The Mis issippi elections being over, we may confidently look for a rapid increase in business.

The Colorado, from St. Louis, passed down last evening for Vicksburg, sixty hours behind time. A heavy dew would be appreciated by navigators-anything that would tend to increase the depth. The local packets brought in yesterday 293 bales cotton, 2283 sacks cottonseed, 116 bags seed-cotton. The Ruth, Captain Postal, will be found at the landing this morning from White river with a big trip.

The pilots of the Maule report the Robert Mitchell aground at Moon's towhead, sixty miles below here. Every boat leaving pert yesterday had a good tr p, some of them as much as hey wanted on the depth of water. Some of the packets advertised to leave yesterday did not leave, but will take their departure positively this evening. See notice elsewhere. The John B. Maude, Captain West, came in yesterday from New Orleans with a fair trip of freight and passengers; being unavoidably detained. The Belie Memphis departed for St. Louis, yesterday, with a fair trip. She was seventeen hours behind her regular time. She will be on her regular day

Eext trip.
The Quickstep came in from the mouth of White river with 109 bales cotton, 620 sacks cotton-seed, 40 bags seed cotton, and returned again last evening with a good trip. Ed. Johnson, a notorious character of
